Introduction : Mr. Kingshuk Saha, accompanied by Mr. Montu Das- the Founder & President of Chess Boxing Organisation of India (CBOI) representing India, participated in the International Chessboxing Grand Prix held at Almaty, Kazakhstan, from February 23rd to February 26th, 2024. The event witnessed competitors from various countries, including India, Turkey, Russia, Kyrgyzstan, and the host nation Kazakhstan.

Event Overview : The International Chessboxing Grand Prix at Almaty, Kazakhstan, showcased the growing popularity of chessboxing in Asia. Participants from different nations converged to showcase their skills in this unique blend of mental acuity and physical prowess. The tournament served as a platform for athletes to represent their countries and compete for the prestigious title.

Mr. Kingshuk Saha, the sole representative from India in the -60kg category, exhibited remarkable skill and determination throughout the competition. Despite facing tough opponents, Saha displayed exceptional sportsmanship and resilience. Although he did not secure the title, his performance was commendable, serving as an inspiration to fellow chessboxers.

The media coverage of the event was done by Chessboxing National TV and on Online platform by Chessnews Kazakhstan (newspaper and media links will be shared soon).

The participation in International Chessboxing Grand Prix underscores the growing interest and potential for chessboxing in India. Mr. Kingshuk's valiant effort not only showcased his individual talent but also encouraged other athletes to pursue their dreams in this emerging sport. The event highlighted the vast scope for chessboxing to thrive globally, with players from diverse backgrounds coming together to compete on an international stage.
